Call for abstracts now open

A call for abstracts to fill a limited number of opportunities within the conference program is now being undertaken.

We invite you to contribute to this important conference by submitting proposals that address housing and homelessness research, policy or practice with particular relevance to the conference theme.

The deadline to submit abstracts is Friday 7 August

Find out more here.

Conference presenters will be granted a special speaker registration fee equivalent to the early bird registration fee.

Early bird registration deadline almost here - last chance to save up to 20%!

The early bird registration must close Friday 17 July. If you want to save up to 20% on the registration fee you must register now.

Don't miss out on this chance to register early and secure big savings!
